WEDDING CINEMATOGRAPHY EXPERIENCE

- My passion stemmed from producing content driven short films as an enthusiast / student. I have a great eye for detail and I am a passionate film maker that wants to engage with my audience and tell content driven stories.
- I also edit projects sourced from other producers / directors. I input my time and effort to delivering the final product; from understanding the client's specific requirements to producing their films. I'm always striving to make my next film better, and this is what keeps me discovering innovative and interesting ways to portray my film making skills; I want to feel that sense of achievement and fulfilment in what I pride.
